

A Call to Reapers

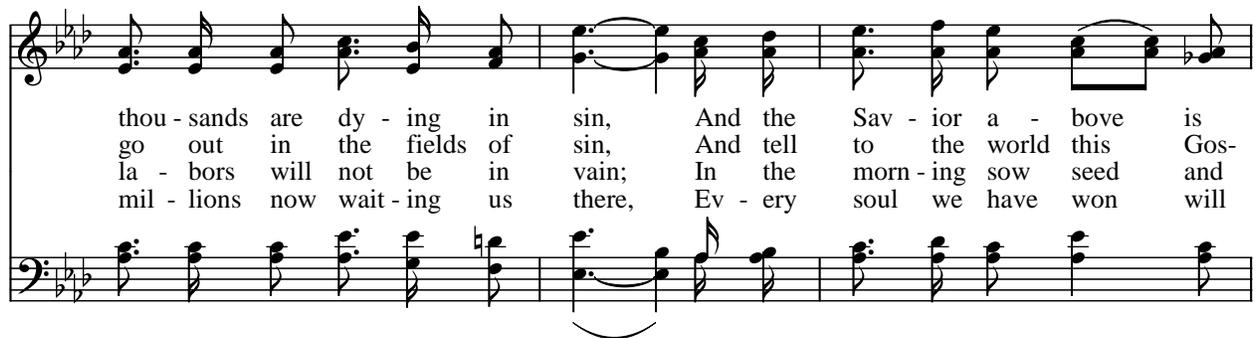

William I. Feazell, 1905

John Edmond Thomas

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. The har - vest is white and the reap - ers are few, While
2. The Lord of the har - vest ap - peals un - to you, To
3. The Sav - ior is with us, so bur - y your fears; Your
4. When life's work is done and we ga - ther at home, With thou - sands are dy - ing in sin, And the Sav - ior a - bove is go out in the fields of sin, And tell to the world this Gos - la - bors will not be in vain; In the morn - ing sow seed and mil - lions now wait - ing us there, Ev - ery soul we have won will call - ing for you, To ga - ther the lost ones in.

- pel so true, And win - ning the lost ones to Him.
bathe them in tears, Re - turn - ing at eve with grain.
add a bright star To the beau - ti - ful crown we shall wear.

Refrain

Ga - ther them in, the gold - en grain, Go ga - ther from fields of sin; The Ga - ther the har-vest is white and the glean-ers are few, O reap-ers! Ga-ther the last ones reap - ers!

in.
ga-ther them in.