

Come, Oh, Come Home

Martha C. Oliver, 1896

James Ramsey Murray

♩ = 105

1. Sin - ner, list to Je - sus' call: "Come, oh, come home"; Off - 'ring par - don
2. He is e - ver at thy side, Come, oh, come home; Yield thy heart, and
3. Look to Je - sus now for aid, Come, oh, come home; Bear the bur - den now to all— Come, oh, come home. Thou art sick— He of - fers heal - ing.

He will guide, Come, oh, come home. Where thy fal - tering steps are tread - ing, on thee laid, Come, oh, come home. Fol - low Christ, who, meek - ly bend - ing,

Thou art blind— He gives the sight; Trust His word, and round thee steal - ing
There the saints of old have trod, 'Tis con - tri - tion's maz - es thread - ing
Bore thy cross up Cal - va - ry, By the love, all love trans - cend - ing

Refrain

Soon will come the prom - ised light.
Leads the sin - ner up to God. Come, O sin - ner, hear Him call - ing, Call - ing now so He will now thy re - fuge be.

ten - der - ly, Of - fering par - don now to all, Come to Je - sus now.