

He Has Come!

Millie Lawhead, 1901

Versa Hyman

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. He has come, the Ho - ly Spir - it, To my long - ing, wait - ing
 2. Oft - en would He ho - ver o'er me, Wait - ing me to let Him
 3. Then I bade Him search the tem - ple, And re - veal to me my 4. Like the dew, O so re - fresh - ing, Yet so gent - ly He has
 5. O the match - less con - de - scen - sion! For the tri - une God in 6. He has come, O hal - le - lu - jah! Joy - ful bells of Heav - en heart; He has come, and like a fount - ain, Joy and glad - ness up - ward in; Sweet - est words of prom - ise whis - per: "I will cleanse you from all need; Now at last He makes me ho - ly— He is dwell - ing there in - come, And He fills me with His pre - sence, Makes my heart His bless - ed me Deigns to live and bless for - ev - er; Won - drous glo - ry! Can it ring, Fill the earth with sweet - est mu - sic, Ev - ery soul a - wake and

Refrain

start.
 sin."
 - deed. He has come, He has come, He has come, my Ho - ly Guest; He has home.
 be? Oh yes, oh yes, Oh yes
 sing.

come with all His full - ness, Come to reign with - in my breast.