

In a Manger Laid So Lowly

William Batchelder Bradbury, 1867

$\text{♩} = 102$

1. In a man-ger laid so low-ly, Came the Prince of Peace to
 2. As the wise men from far Per-sia Brought rich gifts to Jew-ry's
 3. Where Christ's joy-ful king-dom com-eth, Des-erts blos-som as the earth; While a choir of an-gels ho-ly Sang to cel-e-brate His birth.

 King, Grate-ful love, a rich-er trea-sure, Would we as our offer-ing bring.
 rose; And God's gra-cious rain de-scend-eth, Where the cor-al isl-and grows.

Spirited Refrain

“Glo-ry in the high-est,” Sang the glad an-gel-ic strain;
 “Glo-ry in the high-est,” Let us join th’an-gel-ic strain; “Glo-ry in the high-est,” “Glo-ry in the high-est,” Once more sing th’an-gel-ic strain,

ff

“Peace on earth, good will to men,” “Peace on earth, good will to men.”

ff