

There's a Blessing at the Cross for Me

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1882

John Robson Sweney

$\text{♩} = 95$

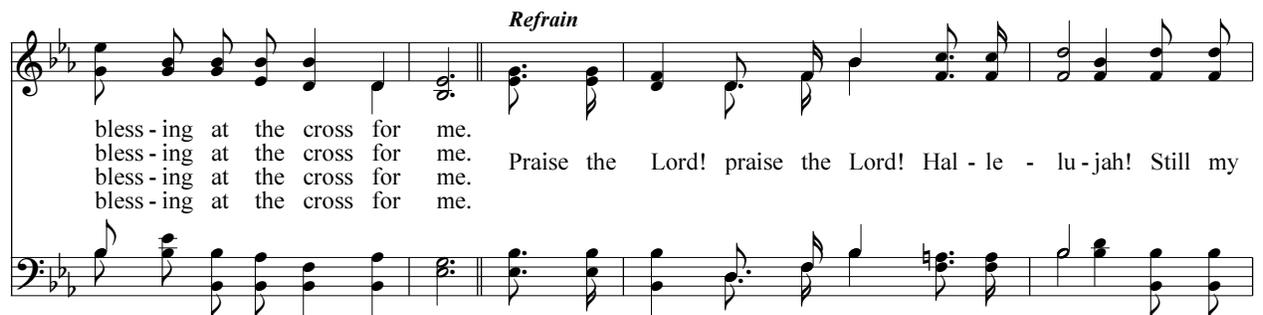

1. I have laid my bur-den down Where the crim - son wa - ters flow, There's a bless-ing at the cross for
2. I have laid my bur-den down, And my trou - bled heart is still, There's a bless-ing at the cross for
3. I have laid my bur-den down: Oh, the peace that fills my soul! There's a bless-ing at the cross for 4. I have laid my bur-den down, And my Sav - ior gives me rest, There's a bless-ing at the cross for me; I have found a spring of joy That the world can ne - ver know, There's a me; I am learn - ing there by faith My Re - deem - er's gra - cious will, There's a me; I was dead, but now I live, Since my Sav - ior made me whole, There's a me; I can pil - low now my head On His gen - tle, lov - ing breast, There's a

Refrain

bless - ing at the cross for me.
bless - ing at the cross for me. Praise the Lord! praise the Lord! Hal - le - lu - jah! Still my bless - ing at the cross for me.
bless - ing at the cross for me.

hap-py, hap-py song shall be; I have found a spring of joy That the world can ne-ver know, There's a bless-ing at the cross for me.