

To the Help of the Lord

Jennie Wilson Howell, 1915

Carrie B. Wilson Adams

$\text{♩} = 103$

1. A - rise! "To the help of the Lord," a - rise! All ye who love Him, the sim - ple and wise; He
2. Go forth! "To the help of the Lord," go forth! Souls are in tra - vail and seek the new birth; The
3. A - rouse! for the sound of the trump - et's blast Soon will give warn - ing, and day will be past; With bids you to la - bor, to list to His call: "To the help of the Lord come har - vest is rea - dy, the fields are all white; "Go ye forth! go ye forth, ere truth be ye gird - ed; now take sword and shield; To the work! to the work! Oh, now, great and small!" A - rise! a - rise, Ye who be - lieve in His ho - ly, com - eth the night!" Lean - ing for strength on His own sure faint not, nor yield! To the help of the Lord a - rise, a-rise! Led by His hand and His own sure rit.

Refrain

ho - ly Word; Ye who have test - ed His cleans - ing power; A - rise at His call this ve - ry hour.
Word, sure Word; Use ev - ery tal - ent and ev - ery power; A - rise and go forth this ve - ry hour.
Word, sure Word; Burn - ish your ar - mor, with - hold no power; A - rise at His call this ve - ry hour.