

O Sinner, Come Home

Enoch Stubbs, 1880

John Robson Sweney

♩=93

1. O sin - ner, come home, the ban - quet is wait - ing, Re - turn to thy Fa - ther, sin's
2. Thy sins have been great, thy wan - der - ings f - ar; But great - er His mer - cy; then 3. He will not up - braid thee with sins of the past; The Lord will for - give; He is fol - ly for - sak - ing; That Fa - ther still loves thee, and waits to em - brace His fol - low yon st - ar, That leads thee to Him, whom the an - gels a - dore; And be true to the la - st; The law of His mer - cy can not be re - pealed, It pen - i - tent child, when re - turn - ing through grace. hap - py at home, thence to wan - der no more. Then, sin - ner, come home; the stand - eth for - ev - er, with blood it is sealed.

feast is all rea - dy; Pre - pared for the blind, the poor and the nee - dy; The worst are in - vit - ed, all wel - come will be; Re - turn, then, there's room at this ta - ble for thee.

