

Our Lord Is Coming Back Again

J. R. Smith, 1922

J. R. Smith

♩ = 95

1. I have read how the Lord, When a babe in Beth - le - hem, In a 2. I have read how He died, On the cross of Cal - va - ry, Where He
3. Then I read how the Lord, When the thorn crown pressed His brow, Asked for-hum - ble man - ger cra - dle was lain; What He bore for a world which His shed His pre - cious blood, and was slain; He who preached to the poor, and Who

- give - ness for the e - vil in men; How He told His dis - ci - ples That love would not con - demn, And I learned that He is com - ing back a - gain. made the blind to see, Told them He was sure - ly com - ing back a - gain. He is He must leave them now, But He prom - ised He was com - ing back a - gain.

Refrain

com - ing back a - gain, And o'er the u - ni - verse to reign; He's not com-ing back to die, But will take us home on high, Yes, our bless-èd Lord is com-ing back a - gain.