

We Shall Reap By and By

Frances J. (Fanny) Crosby, 1873

Alonzo Judson Abbey

♩ = 94

1. O ne - ver be wea-ry, with vi - gor pur-sue The work which the Mas - ter has
2. O ne - ver be wea-ry, but work with a will, Our Fa - ther will sure - ly His
3. O ne - ver be wea-ry, thro' tri - al and care, Be faith - ful to du - ty and
4. Re - mem - ber His mer - cy, re - mem - ber His love, Who came, our Re - deem - er, from left us to do. If, pa - tient - ly toil - ing, we trust in the Lord, The prom - ise ful - fill. From seeds we have scat - tered in sor - row and tears, We'll ear - nest in prayer. No la - bor for Je - sus was ev - er in vain, Go glo - ry a - bove. Then ne - ver be wea - ry, but joy - fully pur - sue The har - vest will bring us a bless - èd re - ward. ga - ther bright sheaves when the har - vest ap - pears. We shall reap if we faint not, work in His vine - yard, and wait for the rain. We shall reap if we faint not, work which the Mas - ter has left us to do.

reap by and by, Trea - sures im - mor - tal that ne - ver de - cay, Crowns of re - joic - ing that fade not a - way, We shall reap if we faint not, reap by and by.

