

That Window in the Skies

C. H. Gootee, 1906

Mrs. W. E. Lyon

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. I have heard some peo - ple say, Who are in the nar - row way, That
2. They have loss - es but no gain, And their heart is full of pain, When
3. There's the hea - then need the Word, The glad news they've ne - ver heard, These they are trust - ing Je - sus now for all; They have land and hous - es, too, But God's busi - ness will not go just as it should; O so lit - tle they can give, For it stin - gy peo - ple keep from God His tithes; And their heart is cold and lone, There's no tithes are o - ver - due, And the bless - ings they re - ceive are ve - ry small. takes it all to live, They would like to do such great things if they could. There's a mu - sic in their tone, And they oft - en wipe the tear - drops from their eyes.

Refrain

wind - ow in the skies That will bright - en up your eyes; There's a win - dow God will o - pen When you bring in all your tithes; There's a win - dow in the skies That will fill you with sur - prise; That win - dow God will o - pen When you bring in all your tithes.