

Not in the Hour of Death

Franklin Edson Belden, 1900

Franz Abt, arr. Franklin Belden

$\text{♩} = 91$

1. Not in the hour of death, Not when the pulse is low;
2. Not when the frost of time Has changed the gold to gray;
3. Not when the noon of care Has robbed the flow'rs of dew;

Not with the fail - ing breath, Not when you fear to go.
Come in the gold - en prime Of man - hood's sum - mer day.
Come in the morn - ing fair, Of life's glad spring - time new.

Refrain

Come to Him now, come, Come to Him now; Je - sus can save, O

cresc. dim. rit. pp

come to Him now; Je - sus will save, O come to Him now.