

Today

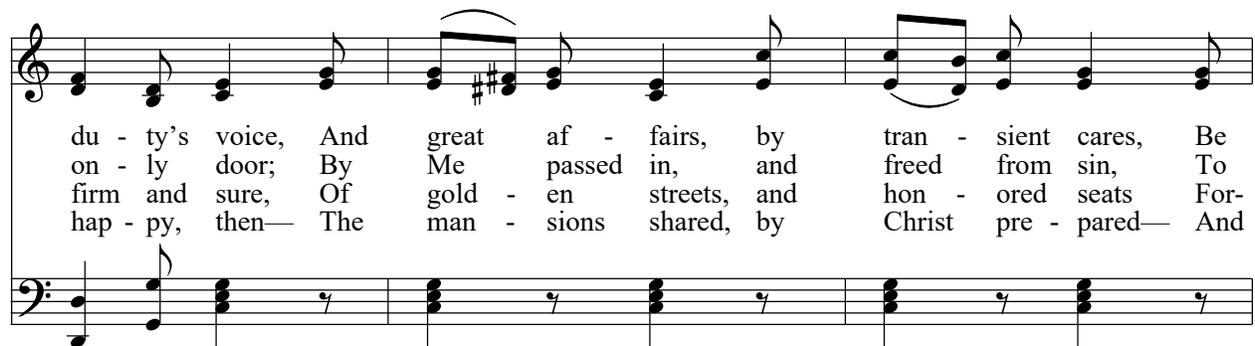

Neal Cheetam, 1877

James Holmes Rosecrans

♩ = 90

1. While man, en - gressed in world - ly things, Is apt to slight stern
2. Seek first His fa - vor, who has said, "I am to Heav'n the
3. The bet - ter way which Je - sus trod Leads to a ci - ty
4. When closed, those gates, be - set with pearls, With - in the right - eous, du - ty's voice, And great af - fairs, by tran - sient cares, Be on - ly door; By Me passed in, and freed from sin, To firm and sure, Of gold - en streets, and hon - ored seats For - hap - py, then— The man - sions shared, by Christ pre - pared— And ban - ished from his choice. The Spir - it speaks, "With - out de - lay Be thirst nor hun - ger more, Oh, haste! I am the prof - fered way, Th'ac -

- ev - er to en - dure. To gain that home and hear Him say, "Well all shall shout, "A - men!" Your soul so glad, you'll sing for aye That re - con - ciled to - day."

- cept - ed time's to - day."
done!" be - gin to - day.
once you heard, "To-day!"