

There's a Crown for Thee

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1899

William Howard Doane

♩=97

1. There's a crown of re - joic - ing, O reap - er, Its
2. There's a robe our Re - deem - er has pro - mised, A 3. There's a palm for the vic - tors thro' Je - sus, That 4. There are songs that with rap - ture are swell - ing In jew - els out - ri - val the sun; There's a crown for the brow of the robe that is fade - less and white, And the souls of the right - eous shall wave in that ci - ty of gold, Where the blest who are safe in its cho - rus o'er Ed - en's bright plain; There are harps that for - ev - er and faith - ful, When la - bor and toil are done. There's a crown wait - ing for wear it, When faith shall be lost in sight. There's a robe wait - ing for por - tals The King on His throne be - hold. There's a palm wait - ing for ev - er Re - ec - ho the glad re - frain. There's a harp wait - ing for thee, Yes, a crown, beau - ti - ful crown for thee; In the thee, Yes, a robe, beau - ti - ful robe for thee; In the thee, Yes, a crown, beau - ti - ful palm for thee; In the thee, Yes, a harp, beau - ti - ful harp for thee; In the heav'n-ly land a - bove, Where all is love, There's a crown, beau-ti - full crown for heav'n-ly land a - bove, Where all is love, There's a robe, beau-ti - ful crown for heav'n-ly land a - bove, Where all is love, There's a palm, beau-ti - ful palm for heav'n-ly land a - bove, Where all is love, There's a harp, beau-ti - ful harp for thee.

 thee.
 thee.
 thee.