

I'm Not Alone

Mary B. Peck, 1889

John H. Kurzenknabe

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. When dark - ening sha - dow 'round me falls, And light and hope seem
2. His eye can pierce the dark - est cloud, His arm all dan - ger
3. When sor - rows come with crush - ing blow, O'er my de - fense - less
4. So, cheer - ful - ly I'll tra - vel on Through life's dark, thorn - y gone, There is one thought my heart up - holds; It is, I'm not a - lone.

stay; He waits for nei - ther look nor word, Our trou - bles to al - lay.
head; I'll trem - ble not, for well I know Who by my side doth tread.
way; I'll fear no ill, I'm not a - lone While Je - sus is my stay.

Refrain

No, ne - ver a - lone, Je - sus' fol - lowers be; He's ev - er near, why
No, not a - lone, ne - ver a - lone, Can should we fear? Our Guide and Hope is He.