

Loved One, Farewell

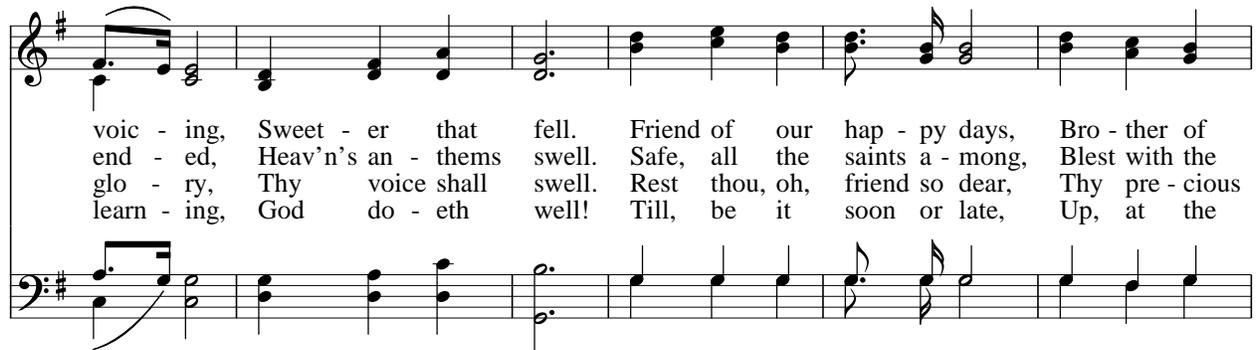

Mary Bridges Canedy Slade, 1876

Asa Brooks Everett

$\text{♩} = 113$

1. Birds are re - joic - ing, O'er hill and dell; Hushed is thy
2. Thou hast as - cend - ed, Where an - gels dwell; Where, earth songs
3. Sal - va - tion's sto - ry Then thou wilt tell; Tri - umphs of
4. Safe from thee turn - ing, Grief's tones will knell; Hard, hard the voic - ing, Sweet - er that fell. Friend of our hap - py days, Bro - ther of end - ed, Heav'n's an - thems swell. Safe, all the saints a - mong, Blest with the glo - ry, Thy voice shall swell. Rest thou, oh, friend so dear, Thy pre - cious learn - ing, God do - eth well! Till, be it soon or late, Up, at the prayer and praise, Thine own sweet mu - sic says, Loved one, fare - well!

prais - ing throng, Sing - ing the new made songs, Loved one, fare - well!
Sav - ior near, Where God shall wipe each tear, Loved one, fare - well!
pearl - y gate, We meet, oh watch and wait, Loved one, fare - well!