

Seeking the Lost (Buchanan)

Adoniram Judson Buchanan, 1889

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Will you go and speak to the lost ones here To the ones who have gone a-
 2. Will you go and speak to the sin - ners blind And who walk in the mid - night
 3. Will you tell them all if they will be - lieve That their souls will be tru - ly
 4. Will you go and tell them the Sav - ior died And pro - vid - ed for them the

- stray? Will you lead them back to the Shep-herd's fold From their wand-'rings in sin's dark gloom? Will you bear some light to their dark - ened mind? Will you tell them their com - ing blest? For the Sav - ior said that they shall re - ceive Pre - cious bless - ings of peace and way? If they full - y trust in the Cru - ci - fied He will par - don their sins to -

Refrain

way?
 doom? Will you seek them now? Will you show them the rest.
 - day. Will you seek them now, Will you seek them now? Will you show them the way? Will you way? Some one may be lost, That you might lead home, To that bright land of per - fect day.

 show them the way?