

Someone Must Tell the Glad Story

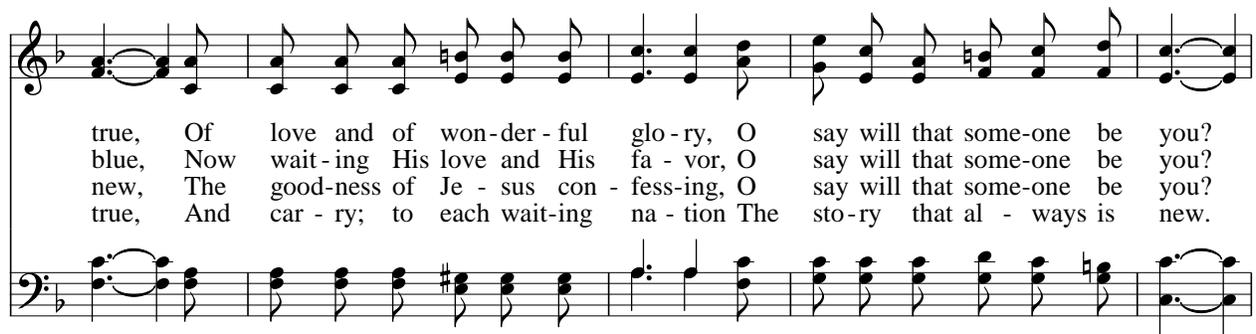

William Charles Poole, 1921

Adam Geibel

$\text{♩} = 110$

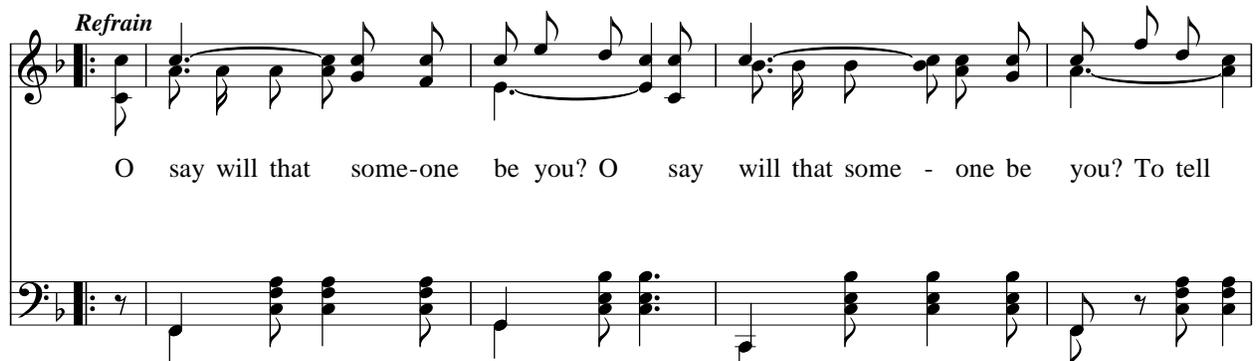

1. Some - one must tell the glad sto - ry, The bless - èd old sto - ry so
2. Some - one must tell of a Sav - ior, To o - thers a - cross the deep
3. Some - one must tell of the bless - ing That comes with each morn - ing so
4. Some - one must tell of sal - va - tion, Some - one must to Je - sus be true, Of love and of won - der - ful glo - ry, O say will that some - one be you?

blue, Now wait - ing His love and His fa - vor, O say will that some - one be you?
new, The good - ness of Je - sus con - fess - ing, O say will that some - one be you?
true, And car - ry; to each wait - ing na - tion The sto - ry that al - ways is new.

Refrain

O say will that some - one be you? O say will that some - one be you? To tell the glad sto - ry of grace and of glo - ry, O say will that some - one be you?

1.

