

A Virgin Did Come

S. C. Clarke, before 1917

G. H. Gregory

$\text{♩} = 115$

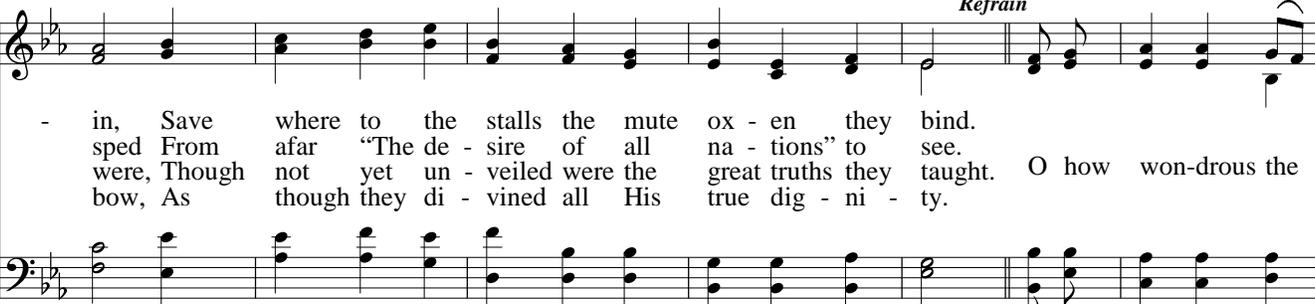

1. A vir - gin did come fro - m low - li - est home, And shel - ter she
2. That Babe was a king, mys - tic gifts, lo, they bring, Sure tok - ens they
3. Ac - comp - lished their hope, the - ir trea - sures they ope— Gold, frank - in - cense,
4. No tok - ens of state round that roy - al Babe wait, Seeming least, and yet fain in a man - ger would find; For full was the inn, and no room was with - were of some great one to be; To Beth - le - hem led, East - ern sag - es have myrrh, to that In - fant they brought, Gifts cost - ly and rare, full of mean - ing they great - est, of mon - archs was He; But in rev - er - ence low, prince - ly Ma - gi did

Refrain

- in, Save where to the stalls the mute ox - en they bind.
sped From afar “The de - sire of all na - tions” to see.
were, Though not yet un - veiled were the great truths they taught. O how won - drous the bow, As though they di - vined all His true dig - ni - ty.

love and the deep hu - mil - i - ty Of Him who was laid in the man - ger for me.