

Tell, O Tell the Wondrous Story

William Lesley Mason, 1899

William Lesley Mason

♩ = 107

1. Tell, O tell the wond - rous sto - ry Of our blest Re - deem - er's
2. Tell, O tell the wond - rous sto - ry Of sal - va - tion full and
3. Choirs of an - gels told His com - ing To the shep - herds on the
4. Let us then re - peat the mes - sage, Tell, O tell it far and birth, How He left His home in glo - ry To re - deem the lost of earth.

free; Je - sus came, the Prince of Glo - ry— Lived and died for you and me.
plains, While they list - ened mute with won - der— List - ened to the wel - come strains.
wide, Of a ran - som for the sin - ner, Of a Sav - ior cru - ci - fied.

Refrain

Tell, O! tell the bless - èd sto - ry Of His Tell the bless - èd sto - ry, Tell, O! tell the bless - èd sto - ry Of His gra - cious love so free, Glo - ry, in the high - est, gra - cious love so free, His love so free, His love so free, Glo - ry, glo - ry, glo - ry in the high - est, ritard.

glo - ry, Be to Christ e - ter - nal - ly.
Glo - ry in the high - est, Be to Christ e - ter - nal - ly, e - ter - nal - ly.