

The Lost Are Coming Home

James Morrow, 1891

John Robson Sweney

$\text{♩} = 107$

1. Lift up your ring - ing songs to - night, On mount-ain top or shore; For
2. Some cheeks are seamed by years of sin, And some are flushed in youth; But
3. From those who knew the Sav - ior's love, They heard the Gos - pel "Come"; In 4. Ho - san - nas ring from ev - ery voice, They reach to Heav - en's dome; An-an - gel hearts will throb in joy, With glad news flow - ing o'er. They're all have known their need of Christ, And all have found the truth. They're

- Him they trust, and kept by Him, They will no long - er roam. They're
- gels and saints, re - joice, re - joice, The lost are com - ing home.

com - ing home, com - ing home, The Sav - ior bids them come; Praise
com - ing, com - ing home, Com - ing, com - ing home,

God, the wea-ry, wan - dering ones, The lost are com - ing home.

