

Win Them One by One

Lizzie Douglas Foulks DeArmond, 1912

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=105

1. We must win them one by one As the Mas-ter did of old, When He said to
2. Is it no - thing they are lost, Souls that Je - sus died to save? Let us glad-ly
3. We must win them one by one By a lit - tle kind-ness shown, Or a gen - tle

His dis - ci - ples, "Fol - low Me"; From the high - ways broad and wide, in the res - cue lend a hand; News of life and love im - part touch of hu - man sym - pa - thy; Stoop - ing down from heights of ease,

To the by - ways turn a - side, In the foot-steps of the Man of Gal - i - lee.
To some wea - ry, sin - ful heart, Help some bro - ther in the glo - ry light to stand.
Seek - ing on - ly God to please, Point - ing ev - er to the Christ of Cal - va - ry.

Refrain
One by one, yes, one by one, We must win them for Je - sus one by one;

In the nar - row ways of life, A - mid the tu - mult and the strife, We must win them for Je - sus one by one.
