

Hold the Lamp of Life Aloft

Jennie Bain Wilson, 1880

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩=105

1. Hold up God's true and sav - ing light, The lamp of life di - vine; That
2. On life's great deep our bro - ther's bark Is drift - ing with the tide; The
3. In er - ror's gloom with none to save From nev - er end - ing loss, Stray
4. While we in God's true light re - joice, For help a right-eous plea Comes bright-ly thro' sin's drear - y night Its bless - èd rays may shine.

Refrain
bea - con gleam - ing thro' the dark, From dan - ger's course to guide. O pre - cious souls for whom Christ gave His blood up - on the cross. O to us in a plaint - ive voice From sad lands o'er the sea.

hold the lamp of life a - loft! Let its light and its glo-ry shine, Till each hold the lamp of life a - loft!

land and isle a - far, Where im - mor-tal spir-its are, Shall re - joice in the light di - vine.