

Sing the Glorious Victory

Alexcenah Thomas, 1891

Alexcenah Thomas

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Ring, ring out, ye bells, for Eas - ter, Ring, ring out a mer - ry chime; Ev - ery heart is
2. King of kings! we love and bless Thee, Death no long - er holds his prey; Je - sus res - cued
3. Sing we then of life e - ter - nal, Joys of im - mor - tal - i - ty; Je - sus burst the full of glad - ness At this joy - ous Eas - ter time. Christ a - rose to ope the por - tals Of His king - dom us, His child - ren, Man is tru - ly blest - to - day. See, O see the light of Hea - ven Stream - ing from the chains of bond - age, And the soul of man is free. Sing of love so strong and match - less, Last - ing through e - bright and fair, And to give us life im - mor - tal, That all men His joy might share.

o - pen door! Yes, we know our Lord has giv - en Life and joy for - ev - er - more. On this day of
- ter - ni - ty; Ring, ye bells, with notes of glad - ness, Ring the glor - ious vic - to - ry.

all most glor - ious, Chant your joy - ous Eas - ter lay, For our Je - sus reigns vic - tor - ious O - ver earth and Heaven for aye.

