1. Star of the morn - ing, beam on our way; Break thro' the dark - ness,
2. Star of the morn - ing, gleam on our tears; Scat - ter the dark - ness,
3. Star of the morn - ing, shine thro' the gloom; Gleam thro' the sha - dows,
4. Bride of Im - man - uel, cease from thy tears. Lo! in the day - break bring on the day; Haste thro' the shades of the lin - ger - ing night, ban - ish our fears; Give to our long - ings the joys thou dost bring;

shroud - ing the tomb; Wak - en the na - tions that slum - ber be - neath;
glo - ry ap - pears; Fast flies the storm cloud, the dark - ness is past;

Refrain

Now let thy glo - ry flash out on our sight.
Give to our rap - ture our Sav - ior and king.
Speed - i - ly van - quish the pow - er of death. Star of the morn - ing, Star of the morn - ing, Morn - ing is com - ing with bless - ings at last.

Break thro' the dark - ness, And bring the glad day.
