

On Calvary's Cross One Day

May M. Brewster, 1920

Ira Bishop Wilson

1. The Sav - ior came to seek and save His lost ones, Who had wan - dered
2. 'Twas love, un - bound - ed love for us that led Him O'er that lone - ly, 3. Oh, hear His voice so gent - ly now en - treat - ing, Then no long - er far a - way; To res - cue them from sin, His life He of - fered On Cal - vary's thorn - strewn way; For you and me He bore the shame and sor - row On Cal - vary's from Him stray; Ac - cept the gra - cious call, and leave your bur - den At Cal - vary's

Refrain
cross one day. cross that day. It was your sin and my sin that nailed Him to the tree, For cross to - day.

your sake and my sake He made sal - va - tion free; No gift from earth's trea - sure His grace e'er can mea - sure, But your love and my love is all He asks to - day.