

The Loyal Call

L. B. Kenyon, 1896

M. E. Place

♩=110

1. A call to "loy-al work-ers" Is sound-ing o'er the land; A-
 2. The prize is life e - ter - nal, With Je - sus cru - ci - fied; 'Twas
 3. Come, "work-ers," look a - round you, The Mas - ter calls to - day; What-
 4. O loy - al be to Je - sus, In word and thought and deed; Then

ff

- wake! A - rise! the time is short, The Lord, He is at hand! Take on the cross in a - go - ny, For us He bled and died; Then,
 - e'er thy hand shall find to do, Haste, now the call o - bey! Bear grand - ly will the work go on, Where "work-ers" sow the seed; Thro'

mf

up the cross for Je - sus, On Him fix heart and eyes, Then in His grace suf-work - ers, look to Je - sus, For help to o - ver - come, And then in that fair no - bly all for Je - sus, And in His strength a - bide, Then bless-èd be the Christ our bless-èd mas-ter, We vic - t'ry shall at - tain; Then in that morn so

f ff Refrain Faster

- fi - cient Press for - ward to the prize.
 morn-ing He'll say to thee, "Well done."
 ef - forts To win for Him a bride. A - wake! "loy-al work-er," To the so - on, We'll reap the gold-en grain.

work while you may; In God's name to conquer, He's calling to - day.