1. My spir-it cri - eth out for Thee, Thou liv - ing One who chang-eth not.
2. My soul is faint, my hope is gone, Thou liv - ing One who gav - est sight
3. Oh, pur - blind soul, the light is here! Self's sha-dows on - ly blind thine eyes,

Earth's nois - es flood and fol - low me The while I try to call to
To those born blind, I grope a - lone With none to help or hear my Nor hand is to thy - self more near Than He who spake that all might

Refrain

Thee: I call and find Thee not, I call and find Thee not!
moan; Is there for me no light? Is there for me no light! His work is hear His mes - sage from the skies, His mes - sage from the skies.

done! the ris-en Lord Speaks to His friends this part-ing word: "Lo! I am with you now, al - way, Lo! I am with you now, al - way!"
