

What Will Your Answer Be?

Lizzie DeArmond, 1917

J. K. Everett

♩=100

1. When dawn-eth the last great day, And Christ as a judge you see, When
2. Has life been for self a - lone, Or giv - en in ser - vice true? Has
3. In love have you shared a load Too hea - vy for one to bear? Or
4. Thro' all of your glad, bright days, What sac - ri - fice did you make? O called to ac - count for the good you have done, O what will your an - swer an - y - one en - tered the hea - ven - ly goal, Be - cause you have helped them spok - en a com - fort - ing word to a soul, Or whis - pered an ear - nest sure - ly a cup of cold wa - ter you gave With joy, for your Lord's dear

Refrain

be?
thro'? What will your an - swer be? O what will your an - swer be? When prayer? your an - swer be? your an - swer be?
sake?

life's sha-dows fall, and Je-sus shall call, O what will your an - swer be?