

Unto Him Will I Sing

Palmer Hartsough, 1904

M. A. Aulick

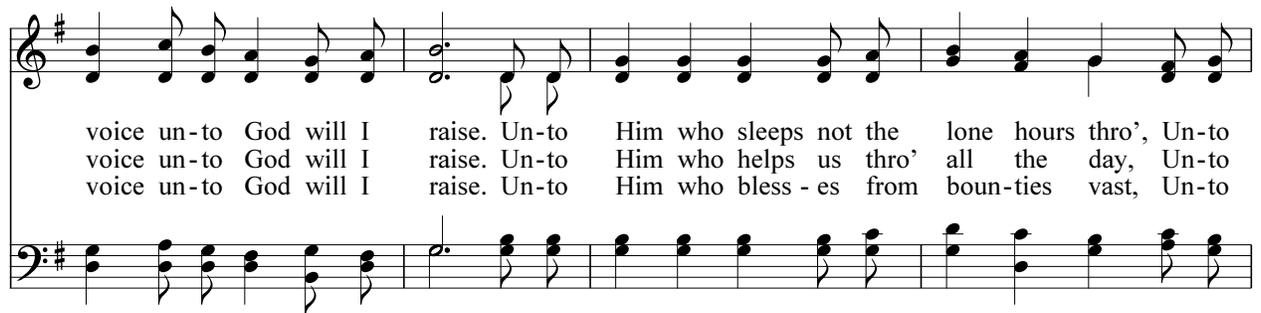

$\text{♩} = 106$

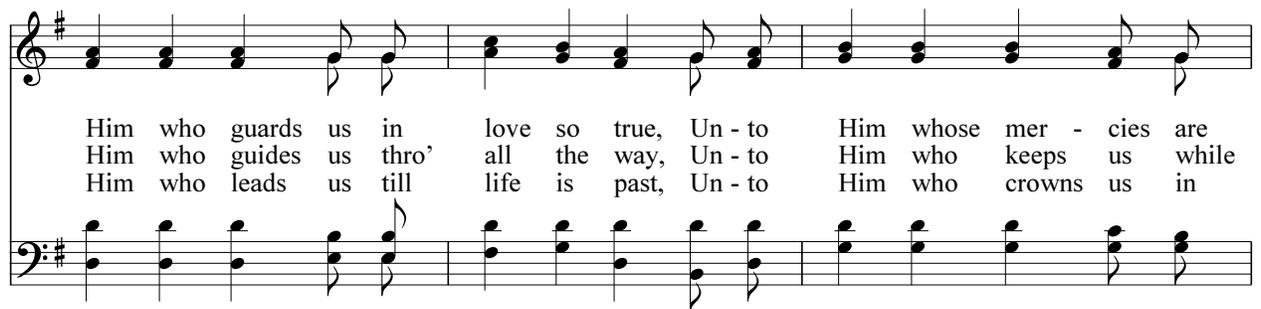

1. When the ris - ing dawn drives a - way the night, When the sun looks forth with his
2. When the even - ing comes and the sha - dows fall, When the world grows still at the
3. Ev - ery morn I'll learn of His ho - ly word, Ev - ery eve His truth shall with beams so bright, When the glad world rings with its pure de - light, Then my home - ward call, When the peace - ful night spreads her couch for all, Then my joy be heard, And at last in death, with my bless - èd Lord, Then my voice un - to God will I raise. Un - to Him who sleeps not the lone hours thro', Un - to voice un - to God will I raise. Un - to Him who helps us thro' all the day, Un - to voice un - to God will I raise. Un - to Him who bless - es from boun - ties vast, Un - to Him who guards us in love so true, Un - to Him whose mer - cies are Him who guides us thro' all the way, Un - to Him who keeps us while Him who leads us till life is past, Un - to Him who crowns us in ev - er new, Un-to Him will I sing all my days. To the praise of my here we stay, Un-to Him will I sing all my days.

Refrain

 Heav'n at last, Un-to Him will I sing all my days. To the praise king, While I live will I sing; To the praise of my of my king, While I live I will sing, To the praise of my king, While I live, while I live, will I sing.

 king, of my king,