

Jesus Lives! O Day of Days!

George D. Wildes, 1871

$\text{♩} = 85$

1. Je - sus lives! O day of days! Glad we bring our grate - ful praise;
 2. Lord and Pro - phet, spake He not? Have ye His own words for - got,
 3. Tear - ful to the se - pul - cher Ma - ry comes in grief and fear;
 4. Wel - come then, the day of days! Lord, 'tis Thine our tune - ful praise;

He is ris - en! Gone the gloom, An - gels sit with - in the tomb.
 Tell - ing, while in Gal - i - lee, Thus the vic - to - ry should be?
 Sees the stone now rolled a - way, Hears the wait - ing an - gels say:
 Thine, for us, the Tempt - ed, Tried, Thine, for us, the Cru - ci - fied;

Vain the taunt of Jew de - ny - ing, Vain the vaunt o'er Je - sus dy - ing,
 How through scorn and dire af - flict - ion, Thor - ny way and cru - ci - fix - ion,
 "Why the dead a - mong the liv - ing Seek ye?" Lo! The Lord life - giv - ing
 Thine for us the Re - sur - rect - ion, Thine the Life, the Sure Pro - tect - ion.

a tempo

Heav'n - ly voic - es, from the grave, Now pro - claim His power to save.
 Van - quished death, and rent the grave— Christ the King should live to save.
 Ris - es, vain the watch, the grave: Prince of Life, He lives to save!
 Sav - ior! Sov - ereign over the grave, May we know Thy power to save.

Refrain

1-3. He is ris-en! Come and see, How He tri-umphed might-i-ly!
 4. He is ris-en! joy-ful-ly, Lord! we raise our song to Thee,

Conquer-or thus o'er all His foes, Je-sus from the dead a-rose.
 Conquer-or thus o'er all His foes, Je-sus from the dead a-rose.
