

Let Your Light Shine

Mrs. G. W. Burroughs, 1890

Mrs. G. W. Burroughs

♩ = 88

1. Bro-ther, you've come to the Lord; You be - lieve in His ho - ly word, And its
2. Bro-ther, your Lord lived for you As the hum-blest of hum-ble do; And for
3. Bro-ther, you may real - ly think, And by this from your du - ty shrink, That for
4. Bro-ther, your ta - lents may be Nei-ther five, nor yet two or three; But you light has shone on your heart; Oh! my bro - ther, ne'er let it de - part.

you He will - ing - ly died To re - deem you, and all men be - side.
you there's no - thing to do; But, my bro - ther, that can't be. No! No!
cer - tain - ly must have one; Then, a - rouse you! be - fore that is gone.

Refrain

Let your light shine, oh, let it now shine, Out from your heart o'er the world; Do some-thing, tho' it's lit-tle, Out of love for your Lord.