

There Is Coming a Day

Edward Albert Barnes, 1886

Tullius Clinton O'Kane

♩=97

1. There is com-ing a day When the Lord will ap - pear, As writ-ten in words we are
2. Then the o - cean will roar, And the el - e - ments melt, And all that is earth - ly for-
3. There is com-ing a day When the Lord will ap - pear, Re - veal-ing His pow'r and ful-taught to be - lieve, With His pre - sence di - vine, And His an - gels of light, The

- ev - er be gone; Then the trum-pet will sound Till the dead shall a - wake, That
- fill - ing His word. O ye child-ren of light Who are wait-ing in faith, Be

Refrain
glo - ry of which it is vain to con - ceive.
all may be - hold the mil - len - ni - al morn. Com - ing, yes, com - ing;
rea - dy to wel - come the day of the Lord.

com-ing, yes, com-ing; There's com-ing a day when the Lord will ap - pear, Com-ing, yes, com-ing;

com-ing, yes, com-ing; There's com-ing a day when the Lord will ap-pear.