

There Stood Three Marys by the Tomb

John Mason Neale, 1853

J. B. Litler

♩=155

1. There stood three Ma-ry's by the tomb On East - er morn-ing ear - ly;
 2. But ear - lier still the an - gel sped, His news of com - fort giv - ing;
 3. But one, and one a - lone, re - mained, With love that could not va - ry;
 4. The world it - self keeps East - er Day, The Heav'n a - bove is beam-ing;

When day had scarce-ly chased the gloom, And dew was white and pear-
 And "Why," he said, "a - mong the dead Thus seek ye for the liv-
 And thus a joy past joy she gained, That some-time sin - ner, Ma-
 All in high fes - tiv - al ar - ray The mer - ry bells are gleam-

- ly: Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! With lov - ing but with err - ing
 - ing?" Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! "Go, tell them all, and make them
 - ry; Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! The first the bless - ed form to
 - ing. Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! The Lord hath risen, as all things mind, They came the Prince of Life to find, They came the Prince of Life to blest; Tell Pe - ter first, and then the rest. Tell Pe - ter first, and then the see Of Him that hung up - on the tree, Of Him that hung up - on the tell; Good Chris-tians, see ye rise as well, Good Chris-tians, see ye rise as find. Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

 rest." Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
 tree; Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!
 well! Al-le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!