

Let Us Tell the Story

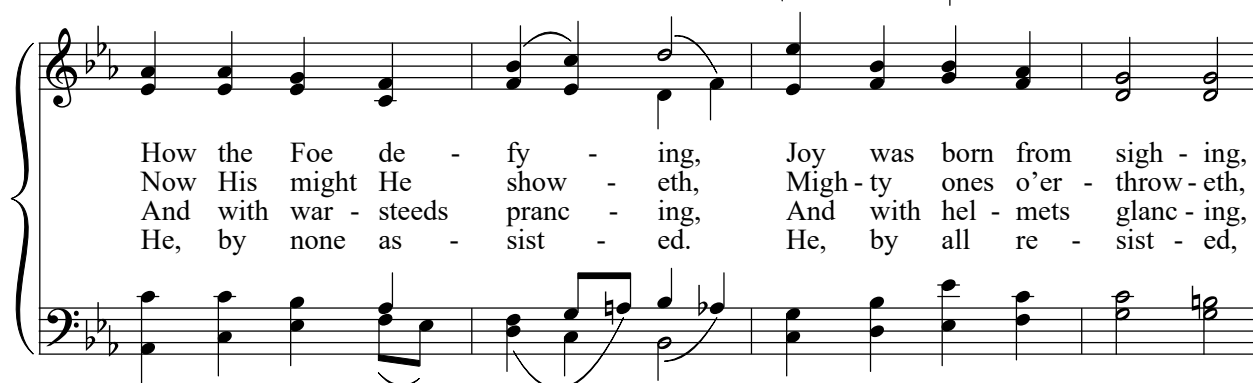

15th Century Latin, tr. John Mason Neale

Piæ Cantiones, 1582; harm. G. H. Palmer

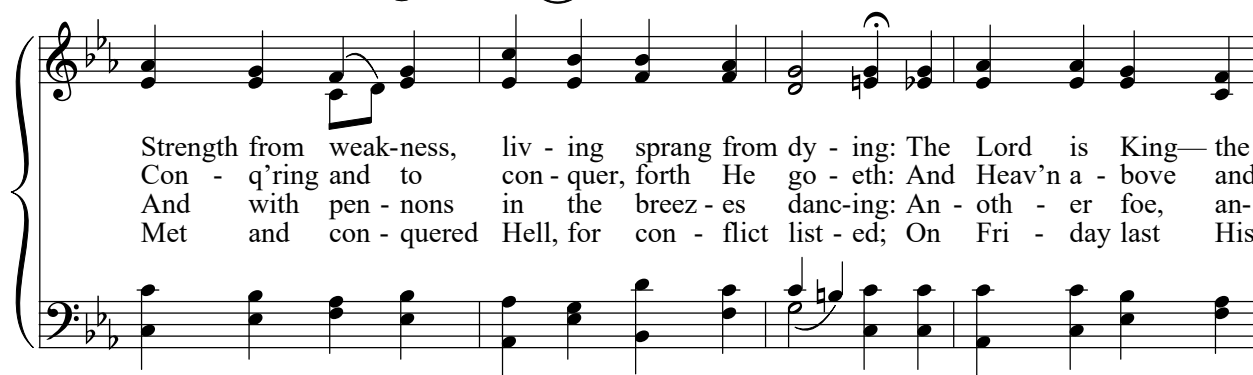

♩=110

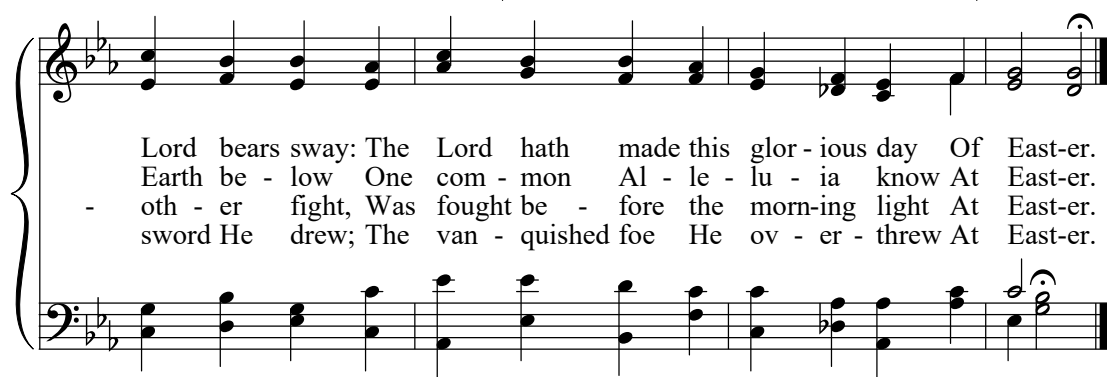

1. Let us tell the sto - ry, How shame led on to glo - ry;
 2. Now up - on Mount Si - on Up - ris - eth Ju - dah's Li - on;
 3. Ev - ery earth - ly bat - tle Is fought with ar - mor's rat - tle.
 4. Sin - gle war - fare wag - ing, Em - bat - tled hosts en - gag - ing,

How the Foe de - fy - ing, Joy was born from sigh - ing,
 Now His might He show - eth, Migh - ty ones o'er - throw - eth,
 And with war - steeds pranc - ing, And with hel - mets glanc - ing,
 He, by none as - sist - ed. He, by all re - sist - ed,

Strength from weak-ness, liv - ing sprang from dy - ing: The Lord is King—the Con - q'ring and to con - quer, forth He go - eth: And Heav'n a - bove and
 And with pen - nons in the breez - es danc - ing: An - oth - er foe, an - Met and con - quered Hell, for con - flict list - ed; On Fri - day last His Lord bears sway: The Lord hath made this glor - ious day Of East-er.

 Earth be - low One com - mon Al - le - lu - ia know At East-er.
 - oth - er fight, Was fought be - fore the morn - ing light At East-er.
 sword He drew; The van - quished foe He ov - er - threw At East-er.