

The Gospel Invitation

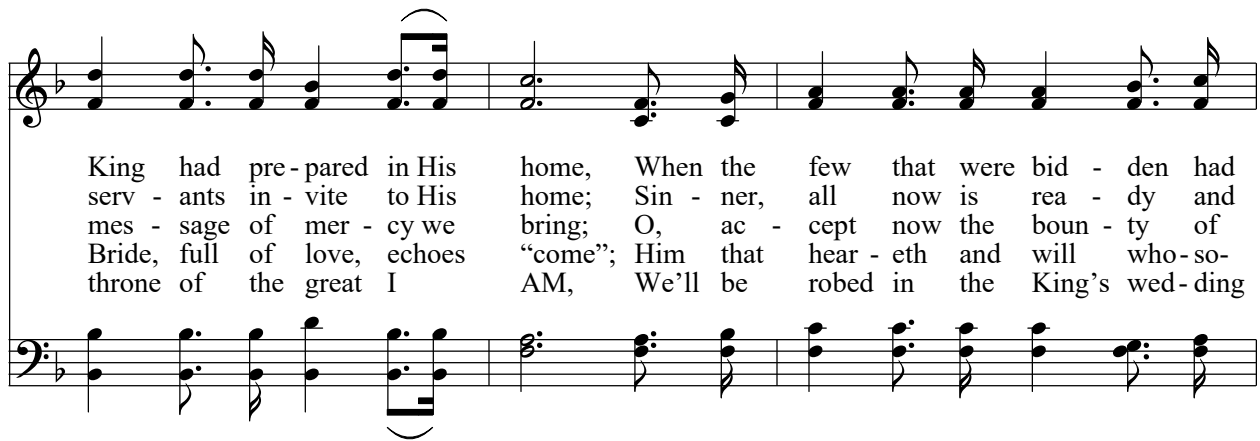

Horace Neely Lincoln, 1898

W. H. Whitworth

$\text{♩} = 103$ Soprano and Tenor ad lib.

1. We are told of the feast and the wed - ding, Which the
2. Christ, to - day spreads a ban - quet of mer - cy, And His
3. Slight no long - er the kind in - vi - ta - tion, And the 4. Still the Spir - it so ten - der - ly woos you, And the 5. In the day of the grand co - ro - na - tion, On the King had pre - pared in His home, When the few that were bid - den had serv - ants in - vite to His home; Sin - ner, all now is rea - dy and mes - sage of mer - cy we bring; O, ac - cept now the boun - ty of Bride, full of love, echoes "come"; Him that hear - eth and will who - so - throne of the great I AM, We'll be robed in the King's wed - ding spurned it, Ma - ny more were in - vit - ed to come.

Refrain

wait - ing, On the high - ways of sin, cease to roam.
Je - sus, And sit down at the feet of thy king. Out on the
- ev - er, Let him come to the heav - en - ly home.
gar - ments, At the dear mar - riage feast of the Lamb.

Out on the high - ways, in - to the by - ways, high - ways, in - to the by - ways, Ov - er the Ov - er the mount - ain, ov - er the sea, Car - ry the mes - sage, mount - ain, ov - er the sea, Car - ry the mes - sage, tell of sal - tell of sal - va - tion, Ring out the tid - ings, "Mer - cy is free."

- va - tion, Ring out the tid - ings, "Mer - cy is free."